Whenever the left accuses you of doing something bad, just remember it's all Jungian projection. They are doing the exact thing they are accusing you of. And so the most powerful Democrat in the country went to get her hair done at a Salon despite the restrictions (and with no mask). When she got caught, she blamed the owner for setting her up, a charge which is ridiculous since she, Pelosi, had to set up the appointment!

The fact that the owner accepted the appointment is more a reflection of her dire economic straits, which she acknowledged on Tucker, because the Democrats will not pass a UBI or Medicare for All during a pandemic. And Biden has vowed the same. That's the tolerant left that cares about workers for yah!
